Melissa Nash Andrews
2009 Mover & Shaker

A recognized industry expert with over 20 years of business management experience, Andrews is the founder and President of ARI. ARI is a full-service collection agency that provides small and medium-sized businesses in the professional and construction industries with credit and collections services that allow businesses to retain their customers and maintain critical need flows. Under her leadership, ARI is poised to reach its revenue target of $300,000 for its second year in operation, in addition to launching new divisions for serving homeowners associations and hospitality sectors. Andrews has also been instrumental in ARI's 250-percent expansion of its corporate work and the company ranking second in the 2008 StartupNation Home-Based 100 Competition. Andrews is the author of the popular book, How To Get Paid On Time Every Time and a regular speaker on the topic of Credit and Collections.
